DR. TINA OPIE BIO AND EVENT INTRODUCTION

Dr. Tina Opie Bio

Dr. Tina Opie is an Associate Professor of Management, and an award-winning teacher and researcher, consultant and speaker. She is the founder of Opie Consulting Group LLC, where she advises large firms in the financial services, entertainment, media, beauty, educational, and healthcare industries. Her research has appeared in such outlets as O Magazine, The Washington Post, The Boston Globe, and Harvard Business Review and she has been published in multiple academic journals. She is also a regular commentator on Harvard Business Review's Women at Work podcast and Greater Boston's NPR affiliate television station WGBH.

Possible Emcee Introduction

"When organizations are tired of having their butts kicked by culture, diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI), they have Dr. Tina Opie come to speak to their organizations. She is the culture and DEI Whisperer, able to break concepts down into easy-to-understand nuggets that translate into productive change. Dr. Tina Opie helps create more diverse, inclusive, and equitable workplaces by helping teams develop critical leadership skills. She helps unearth blind spots within individuals and organizations and makes the path forward clearer for all.

Dr. Tina's trademarked Shared Sisterhood framework has been embraced by thousands of changemakers. For groups of 5,000 to 50, talent to C-Suite, her insights on equity, inclusion, allyship and more are unmatched. Author, thinker, speaker—she helps us all connect and stay connected. Be prepared, Tina is going to share her informed, yet unvarnished, advice for how we can finally, FINALLY address those DEI boogeymen that make our stomachs drop every time DEI comes up. Direct, science/fact-based and engaging— Tina is a strong cup coffee; let's get ready to drink up.

Please join me in welcoming to the screen (or stage) today's keynote: author, professor, bridge builder, convener, and culture crafter, Dr. Tina Opie."

"When I heard you would be working with our company to help unravel, and allow us to see and focus, I felt both relief and excitement. Relief that my Black co-workers and I would have a professional advocate... I'm happy that the company has invested time and money into your expertise and guidance. It's been a great feeling to know that "I can write to Tina" if I ever want to share. So, thank you!"

"Dr. Tina opened our Women's Leadership Conference—for the second time!—with a deeply thought-provoking and powerful exploration of what is considered 'professional' for women—and why.

Her dynamic energy, her sense of humor, and real scholarly depth and approachability, as well as her down-to-earth relatable-ness, brought our audience alive, They participated! They clapped! They laughed! They talked to each other!

And throughout the remainder of the day participants were still speaking about what she's said, what she evoked in them, what she'd asked them to consider. Dr. Opie is a star!"
